

Privacy

All personal data is collected and stored in line with the Data Protection Act 1998. SiteMasters Plc is registered with The Information Commissioner's Office.

We collect client enquiries, click-stream data, HTTP protocol elements, date and time of visit, search terms and website usage. The data is used to enable us to respond to an enquiry or information supplied by you, to contact you in response to an enquiry, for promotional reasons and to improve the website service.

Any personal information that you provide to us will only be used for the purpose stated at the time we request it. This information will not be disclosed to any third party.

Cookies

SiteMasters Plc use cookies on this website (the "Service"). By using the Service you consent to the use of cookies.

A cookie is a small piece of text sent by your web browser by a website you visit. A cookie file is stored in your web browser and allows the Service or a third party to recognise you and make your next visit easier and the Service more useful to you. We do not use cookies to identify individuals or store personal data.

Cookies will be used by the Service to enable certain functions of the Service, to provide analytics, to test content on our website and to recognise when you return to our website. This data will be used by ourselves and our agents. You can use your browser's cookie settings to determine how the Service uses cookies. If you do not want the Service to store cookies on your device, you should set your browser to refuse cookies. Doing this may affect how the Service functions and you may not be able to access all the features that the Service includes.

You can learn more about cookies and the following third-party websites:

Contact by Telephone

Please note that conversations by telephone may be recorded for training purposes.

E-mail and Electronic Forms

We collect physical contact information, online contact information and preference data.

This data may be used for contacting visitors to answer a specific question, to provide labour rate and service quotations and for marketing purposes. Online forms are provided on this site. Each form is processed using standard mail techniques and is not encrypted. The data is collected so that we can send you information that is relevant to your needs and interests.

The Service contains links to other websites. We have no control over websites outside our domain. If you provide information to a website to which we link, we are not responsible for its protection and privacy.
